is reported to have passed in the subjects

excellence in the Civil Account Code Paper.
M. L. Roy was not able to appear in the remaining two subjects viz Precis and Letter

were no candidates in British India appearing for these subjects. It cannot be stated with any certainty whether papers will be set in these subjects
in the half-yearly examination to be held in November next and in which ex-amination they will be set at all.
The Upper Candidates are in this respect placed at a disadvantage as their confirmation or appointment in the Office of Trade intended to be filled by them may on this account be indefinitely postponed without any fault of his own. As Mr L. Roy is a graduate in arts and law he may be exempted from passing in Pleas-writing and letter drafting.

In his letter No. 286 dated the 6 October 1904 the late Comptroller Mr Eagles recommended that Mr L. Roy may after he is duly qualified be appointed Assistant Comptroller. The Government deferred passing orders on the recommendation as to what should be done in regard to him was at the time premature.

In G.O. No. 2347 § 15.10.04. Mr L. Roy was directed to undergo training in the Madras Accountant General's office and in Pro. no 4110 § 3.1.05. he was at his own request permitted to receive training in the offices of the Examiner of Public Works Accounts and the Controller of Military Accounts. He has completed his training in the Accountant General's office.

You are aware that Mr. Laksh Narasingha Rao, now employed in my office, has passed the Higher Departmental Examination prescribed for appt of the Enrolled List of the Govt of India in the Finance Deptt except in two subjects, named Political Economy and Precis drafting. He could not appear in these subjects because no papers were set this time by the Govt of India in them. But Mr L. Narasingha has been getting a Salary of Rs 200 for nearly 4 years and he naturally expects some increase of pay on passing. He asks that if there is no objection he may be exempted from Examination in the two subjects and that such increase of pay maybe given as may be considered suitable.

The subject of "Political Economy is not of much practical use in the Audit and Account department and it has been thought in British India that it might be removed altogether from the list of subjects but it has not been actually done. Precis & drafting is very important and Mr L. Narasingha should

I therefore recommend that Mr. L. Ve N. Rao maybe gazetted formally as Assistant Comptroller immediately and that he may continue to draw Rs 200 as at present till he passes his Examination in the two Subjects and that I be authorised to examine him in the two Subjects as soon as he is prepared for it and report the result to Govt. After passing the Examination he may be given Rs 240 in consideration of the long time for which he has been drawing Rs 200.

I need scarcely add that for the last 5 or 6 years for which I was on the Comptroller General's Staff I set one or other of the papers in the Higher & Lower Departmental Examinations held during that period.

If, however, Govt is pleased to exempt Mr L. N. Rao from the Examination the increase may maybe given from 1st June 1905

In any case, an order may issue at once gazetting him as an assistant Comptroller and ranking him above Mr Sreenivasa Iyengar.

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. Lakshmi Narasihma Rao, who was directed to pass the higher departmental examination prescribed for enrolled officers of the Financial Department of the Government of India, has successfully passed the examination in the subjects noted in the margin. He has yet to pass in Political Economy and Precis and drafting, for which he could not appear, as no papers were set on them in the Government of India Examination.

1. Civil Account Code
2. Book keeping
3. Political and Revenue system

The Comptroller, however, recommends that Mr. Lakshmi Narasihma Rao may be exempted from passing in Political Economy, as he considers it unnecessary to pass in that subject, and be required to pass only in Precis and drafting, which are needed. The Comptroller proposes to examine Mr. Lakshmi Narasihma Rao himself in these two subjects as soon as the latter is prepared for the examination, and report the result to Government. This recommendation may be approved.

The Comptroller also recommends that Mr. Lakshmi Narasihma Rao may be gazetted formally as Assistant Comptroller immediately, on his present pay of ₹s200, and given ₹s240 after passing the examination above referred to. Considering however, that Mr. Lakshmi Narasihma Rao has been drawing ₹s200 for the past 4 years, and that he has conducted himself creditably in the examination which he has already undergone, he may be given 2 increments at once as recommended

His appointment as Assistant Comptroller as well as the increase of pay from ₹s200 to ₹s240, may be graciously sanctioned.
